Eight help with ACHS 'Employee' seminar here

Eight leaders from business and industry were on hand at Appomattox County High School last week for the fourth annual "Employer-Employee Seminar" for members of the junior class.

The program is coordinated by the Director of Vocational Education, Mr. R. B. Carter, and the Guidance Department at ACHS.

During the course of the seminar, students are aquainted with the things an employer is looking for in a worker, to provide an opportunity for..... students to interact with persons representing business and industry, to increase the students' understanding of the job application and the interview process, and to provide an opportunity for students to see relationships between school work and the world of work.

The program included a welcome to guests; and introduction of the speaker by Mr. Donald Armentrout, principal. Mr. R. B. Carter, Director of Vocational Education, Appomattox County Schools, was speaker. His presentation included the purposes of the seminar and stimulating questions that would be discussed by the resource persons in the group sessions that followed the speech. Seminar leaders and faculty group leaders were introduced by Mrs. Harriet P. James, Guidance Counselor at ACHS. Group sessions followed, with seminar leaders discussing what employers look for in an employee, securing applications and properly completing them, interview procedures, suggestions to improve interviews, the kinds of training needed for employment, and the kinds of positions available in the businesses and industries represented by the Directors of Personnel who were Seminar Leaders.

Lunch was served by the Occupational Foods classes.

Directors of Personnel, participating in the seminar were: Mrs. Jean Hamlett, General Electric Company; Mrs. Merle Alvis, Babcock and Wilcox, Mount Athos Station; Mrs. Joan Johnson, Central Fidelity Bank; Ms. Betty Staten, Nationwide Insurance Company; Ms. Susan Bailey, Armstrong Furniture Company; Mr. Don Clements, Virginia Fibre Corporation; Mr. Norman Shaw, Meredith-Burda and Mr. Steven Smith, Limitorque Corporation.

Juniors who served as student guides for the Seminar were Jacqueline Evans, Diane Franklin, Mary Bryant, Gaye Moore, Debbie Williams, Connie Tolley, Mark Kelso, and David Hancock.

The Seminar has been evaluated as being beneficial to prospective employees, who are our present juniors.

Dean wins scholarship

A Charlotte County student has been awarded a T. Austin Finch Scholarship sponsored by the Thomasville Furniture Industries Foundation.

He is Jeffrey L. Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen R. Dean of Charlotte Court House, Va. Mr. Dean is employed at the Armstrong Furniture Appomattox plant, a division of Thomasville Furniture Industries.

Jeffrey will graduate from Randolph-Henry High School and plans to attend Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in Blacksburg to study veterinary science.

He and seven other 1981 scholarship recipients, all children of Thomasville Furniture Industries employees, were honored at a scholarship banquet Tuesday night (April 28) at the company's main office building in Thomasville.

Selection is based on high school academic records, character, financial need, leadership and other pertinent factors. All applicants were interviewed in April and the final selection was made by a committee of three persons who are not affiliated with the company.

Tom A. Finch, chairman of Thomasville Furniture, presented the scholarship awards at the banquet Tuesday night which was attended by students, their parents and high school administrators.

Abernathy chosen

Ronald Abernathy, a health and physical education major at Bridgewater College, has been named a sophomore class representative to the May Court by vote of the student body.

He will participate in coronation ceremonies at 7 p.m., Friday, May 1, in front of Blue Ridge Hall on the college campus. A reception for the court will follow the ceremonies.

Abernathy, a 1979 graduate of Appomattox County High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Abernathy of Appomattox.

The coronation is part of a week of activities that include bicycle, canoe and relay races, a country fair and May Day dance.

Jones wins FFA award

Richard A. Jones, an Appomattox County High School senior, has been named area winner of the Future Farmers of America Foundation award for poultry production. Richard, 18, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Jones, Route 1, Spout Spring, Va.

For the past four years, Richard has cared for a laying flock as a part of his occupational experience program in agricultural education.

His record will be considered along with five other area winners for the state award. Presentation of the state award will be a program feature of the 1981 State FFA Convention at Blacksburg, June 16-19.

Slow pitch tournament planned

The Lynchburg slow-pitch roundrobin softball tournament is scheduled for May 9 and 10 at the Yellow Branch Elementary School.

Eighteen teams will be accepted into the five-game tournament, and there will be a $70 entry fee for each team.

A total of 25 trophies will be awarded after the tournament.

For information on entering the tournament, call 239-1613 anytime, or call 525-4149 after 6 p.m.

Happiness is 4-H

Three Appomattox Senior 4-H'ers are in Oklahoma City this week, participating in the 30th Annual National 4-H Soils Judging Contest. Glen McClenny, Dale Glover and Blair Smith earned this honor as part of last year's State winning 4-H Soils Team. The State Soils Team also includes Doug Duffey of Botetourt County. The team members left VPI & SU early Sunday morning and arrived in Oklahoma late Monday afternoon. The actual competition takes place today (Wednesday) and the team will return to Virginia late on Saturday. Glen, Dale and Blair are the first 4-H'ers from Appomattox to participate in the National 4-H Soils Contest. Mr. Bob McClenny, District Soil Conservationist with SCS, assisted with the coaching of the team.
